

AP Lit Summer Reading 2022

I have chosen summer reading books that will be both entertaining and useful to your future studies. Please plan to purchase your own copies of each of these books so that you can take copious margin notes while reading. You should be marking passages that demonstrate themes, literary devices, important quotes, etc. When you read the novels, apply and note ideas that appear in How to Read Literature Like a Professor.

Works:

Read this book first:

How to Read Literature Like a Professor: A Lively and Entertaining Guide to Reading Between the Lines by Thomas C. Foster PLEASE BE SURE TO GET THE REVISED EDITION. The older edition is quite different from the new one that we will use. See corresponding assignment under “Assessments.”

Next, read any two of the following

- One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest by Ken Kesey
- Slaughterhouse Five by Kurt Vonnegut
- Catch 22 by Joseph Heller
- Frankenstein by Mary Shelley
- White Noise by Don DeLillo
- A Farewell to Arms by Ernest Hemingway
- The Namesake by Jhumpa Lahiri.
- Anna Karenina by Leo Tolstoy
- Native Son by Richard Wright
- Heart of Darkness by Joseph Conrad
- The Road by Cormac McCarthy
- To the Lighthouse by Virginia Woolf

Assessments:

How to Read Literature Like a Professor, Revised Edition.

- Thoroughly respond to 6 of the corresponding, discussion questions related to chapters within the text- How to Read Literature Like a Professor. These must be typed, and you must apply the ideas of the eight questions you choose to one of your reader’s choice novels.

*As you read, respond to 6 of the following questions/prompts thoughtfully, applying the ideas to your reader’s choice novel. Some questions may not fit your chosen novel, so only choose questions that do for that specific text. Each response should be in complete sentences and at minimum one page in length. This assignment should be typed, double spaced, and in Times New Roman.

-Chapter 5 (Chapter 4 Revised 2013 ed.) – Now, Where Have I Seen Her Before?
1. Define intertextuality. Discuss three examples that have helped you in reading your student choice novel.

-Chapter 8 (Chapter 7 Revised 2013 ed.) – Hansel and Gretel

2. Think of how your student choice novel reflects a fairy tale. Discuss the parallels. Does it create irony or deepen appreciation?

-Chapter 10 (Chapter 9 Revised 2013 ed.) – It's More Than Just Rain or Snow

3. Discuss the importance of weather in your student choice novel, not in terms of plot.

Chapter 10 Revised 2013 ed. — Never Stand Next to the Hero

4. What is the “surrogacy phenomenon” and what purpose does it serve in a narrative? Give an example from your student choice novel and explain how it fits the surrogacy phenomenon.

Chapter 11 – ...More Than It's Gonna Hurt You: Concerning Violence

5. Present examples of the two kinds of violence found in your student choice novel. Show how the effects are different.

Chapter 15 – Flights of Fancy

6. Explain how flight signifies escape or freedom in your student choice novel. Explain in detail.

Chapter 18 – If She Comes Up, It's Baptism

7. Think of a "baptism scene" from your student choice novel. How was the character different after the experience? Discuss.

Chapter 19 – Geography Matters...

8. Discuss at least four different aspects of your student choice novel that Foster would classify under "geography."

Chapter 21 – Marked for Greatness

9. Select a character with a physical imperfection from your student choice novel and analyze its implications for characterization.

Chapter 25 (Chapter 24 Revised 2013 ed.) – Don't Read with Your Eyes

10. After reading Chapter 25, choose a scene or episode from your student choice novel. Contrast how it could be viewed by a reader from the time when it was published with how it might be viewed by a contemporary reader. Focus on specific assumptions that the author makes, assumptions that would not be made in this century.

Chapter 25 (Revised 2013 ed.)— It's My Symbol and I'll Cry If I Want To

11. What are some strategies for dealing with non-standard or “private” symbols in texts? Give an example of odd or uncommon symbolism from your student choice novel. How did you figure out the meaning of the text and the symbolism?

Chapter 26 – Is He Serious? And Other Ironies

12. Explain the multivocal nature of the irony in your student choice novel.

- You then should type 25 (total) specific ideas that you find interesting in the book. These should be a sentence or two in length. Please include quotes in your responses- I will be collecting this for credit on the first day of school.
- You will use these for reference throughout the year.

The two books of your choice: Expect an objective assessment and an AP-style writing prompt on these works during the first week of school. Purchase a copy of these books so that you can annotate and make notes in them based on what you read in How to Read Literature Like a Professor.

Let me know if you have any questions.
