Welcome

Welcome to your College Career Readiness and Personal Finance class. The intention of this course is to provide a relevant 21st century skill based class that will help you as a student and professional for years to come. This course stresses the development of preparing for college and gaining access to the information to make you successful in gaining acceptance to and institute of higher education. In addition to this choosing a path within that institute. Coupled with college readiness is the personal finance peace which will enable you as a future consumer to make wise finance decisions and make you competent, confident managers of your future earnings.

Classroom Norms

RESPONSIBILITY
PARTICIPATION
POSITIVE ATTITUDE
EFFECTIVE USE OF CLASS
TIME
COLLABORATION
PERSISTENCE
INDEPENDANT HELP SEEKING

Safety

Students need to be aware of the technology surrounding them and the responsibility to take care of that equipment in a safe manner.

Safe classroom conduct should be used while collaborating with peers and moving in the classroom.

Policies

- Full disclosure, time and place cell phone policy
- Any student who cheats/plagiarizes on an examination, or any other assignment, shall receive a zero, and may not make-up such work. The instructor, who will then notify the parent/guardian, will privately admonish the student
- Make-Up Work: Students must accept the responsibility of all make-up work caused by absences. Teachers will provide students with one (1) day per day for excused absences unless there are extenuating circumstances. Students must complete work missed as a result of any absence (excused or unexcused) in the required time of one (1) days per day of absences.
- Students may leave the classroom once a period for no more than 5 minutes to use the restroom.
